Soft Wear

April Long,
Executive Beauty & Fitness Editor, ELLE

While there's something to be said for a polished, dressed-up red or a hint-of-tint nude, when it comes to outright cool, nothing rivals a slightly smudgy, merlot-hued lip. The shade suggests its wearer is likely a woman of appetites—for berries, for wine, for kissing—and the soft-focus application implies she may have recently been partaking in any or all these passions with abandon. This look can be worn as a subtle stain or a bold daub of color—I lay the lipstick on thick, then tamp it down with tissue until I get just the right level of hazy imprecision. Then? I leave it alone, because to overthink it or try to correct any stray smears would be to miss the point: This is a mouth that says, "I choose to live deliciously. Want to join me?"

+ For the best blur, McCulloch recommends smudging with your finger "or even an eye-shadow sponge applicator." Try MAYBELLINE NEW YORK Color Sensational The Loaded Bolds in Midnight Merlot ($7.49). Sweater: Agnona.
