Now that the Biennale is over for the year and summer nights sipping Aperol in Piazza San Marco are an (even more) unrealistic daydream, we're looking for any way possible to get Venetian living into our day-to-day. Luckily, Furla is on hand with some accessory aid in the 2018 Cruise collection. Split into two, the collection swerves between vibrant colourways, inspired by Burano houses and Murrine glassware, and styles nodding to traditional Venetian interiors, in red, gold and black. Encased in "La Serenissima" prints and fabrics, the patterns rework classic frescoes into a Pop Art style. Piazza San Marco can wait, for now, Furla will tide you over for the winter.
